NEWS OF NATIONAL INTEREST.

Appointments of Secretary Manning and The President, Etc., Etc.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—Secretary Manning today requested the resignation of Colonel T. N. Burdell, Chief of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing.

Colonel Burdell, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, has been appointed to fill the vacancy.

Mr. Groves entered the Treasury Department in 1883 as a $1,200 clerk. He has served as Chief Clerk of the Department, as Superintendent of the National Bank, Redemption Agency, and as Assistant Treasurer. He was also made Chief Examiner of the Civil Service Commission under President Grant.

The Bureau of Engraving and Printing has about 1,200 employees, but twelve of whom come under the provisions of the civil service law. These are appointed by the President.

The President this afternoon appointed Arthur D. Bissel, of New York, to be Collector of Customs for the District of Columbia.

Mr. Bissel, who is a member of the Custom House, is a native of New York, and has been in the service of the Treasury Department for many years.

The President also appointed John H. Kuhn, of Indiana, to be Surveyor of Customs for the Port of Indianapolis, and Hamilton C. Jones, of the District of Columbia, to be Surveyor of Customs for the Port of Washington.

The President also appointed the following Board of Visitors to the United States Military Academy: Hon. John Bigelow, of New York; Cass R. Coleman, of Massachusetts; General Fitz Hume, of Virginia; Hon. George H. Rains, of Ohio; James C. Tappan, of Arkansas; Professor Edward S. Holden, of Wisconsin; and George L. Miller, of Nebraska.

The President also appointed Lewis C. Barker, of Hampshire, N. H., to be Second Deputy Commissioner of Fisheries, Vice J. L. Lawrence.

To be First Assistant Engineers in the Revenue Service: Charles F. Collins, David MacFadden and Chas. W. Beckwith. To be Second Assistant Engineers in the Revenue Service: Harry L. Boyd, Herbert W. Spear, Philip Little and Richard Champlin.

The President at a late hour this afternoon made the following appointments: William S. May, of Louisiana, to be Minister, resident and Consul General of the United States to Bolivia. To be Consul General of the United States to Mexico: H. E. W. Ewing, of Missouri, at the City of Mexico. To be Consul of the United States to Guatemala: Louis H. B. Smith, of New Hampshire, at Port Brooke, Canada. Peter H. Smith, of Tennessee, to be Consul at Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

Mr. May, of New York, at Bellevue, Canada; Alexander Bertrand, of New York, at St. John, Quebec; John H. Kuhn, of Indiana, at St. Louis, Missouri; John H. Kuhn, of Indiana, at St. Louis, Missouri; John H. Kuhn, of Indiana, at St. Louis, Missouri.

COTTON CROP PROSPECTS.

The Cotton Crop Report for the District of Memphis.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., May 9.—The cotton crop report for the Memphis district, which embraces West Tennessee, North Arkansas, North Mississippi and North Alabama, is the best in memory.

Hill, Fontaine & Co., will say: "As will be seen from the responses to 296 letters of inquiry sent out April 27, there will be an increased acreage planted in cotton in this district of 43 per cent, as compared with last year. The average yield in corn also shows an increase of 14 per cent. The weather has in the main been favorable for planting purposes. Arkansas is the only section where too much wet weather is complained of. The spring has been somewhat backward, but farmers have had their lands in good condition, and planting throughout the district is nearly completed. The season is open with a fine prospect. Labor is plentiful and is reported as working well. Under these conditions, with favorable weather, the outlook is quite encouraging to the planter. Aggregate 296 responses Average: One hundred and sixty-eight reports an increased acreage of cotton. The average yield in corn is twenty-two reports a decrease, and 193 about the same. Average increase, 15 per cent. Weather: April more favorable than last year; sixty-two less favorable, and twenty-six about the same. Labor: plentiful and working well; twenty reports a scarcity as compared with last year. Corn: One hundred reports an increased acreage in corn as compared with last year; thirty-six a decrease, and 160 about the same. Average increase, 15 per cent.

Illinois Crop Prospects.

CHICAGO, May 9.—The Illinois Department of Agriculture latest returns from its 600 correspondents, published to-day, show that as to wheat the prospects are encouraging for about three-fourths of an average yield per acre in the northern division of the State. This division, however, contains but 51,000 acres of winter wheat. The late planting of winter wheat in the central and southern divisions of the State is reported as being about the same as last year. The average yield in corn is reported as being about the same as last year. The average yield in cotton is reported as being about the same as last year. The average yield in soybeans is reported as being about the same as last year. The average yield in oats is reported as being about the same as last year. The average yield in barley is reported as being about the same as last year. The average yield in rye is reported as being about the same as last year. The average yield in clover is reported as being about the same as last year. The average yield in alfalfa is reported as being about the same as last year. The average yield in timothy is reported as being about the same as last year. The average yield in hay is reported as being about the same as last year. The average yield in straw is reported as being about the same as last year. The average yield in grain is reported as being about the same as last year. The average yield in fruit is reported as being about the same as last year. The average yield in vegetables is reported as being about the same as last year. The average yield in other crops is reported as being about the same as last year.

Why the Fact of Marriage Was Kept Secret—Known to Her Family.

CLEVELAND, May 9.—A dispatch to the Plaindealer from Sandusky, says that Frank A. Layman, the editor of the Evening Journal, of this city, gave a statement concerning the account of the death of Mrs. John H. Fisher, which originated in Cleveland and was thence telegraphed to papers throughout the country. Mr. Layman says:

"Regarding the manner and cause of Mrs. Fisher's death I am prepared to denounce the published statement as false in great part, if not in its entirety. The statement, as published, is a gross fabrication, and is a disgrace to the press. It is a shame to the editors of the Cleveland Plaindealer, who originated the story, and to the editors of the other papers which have published it.
